Dear Kathleen,

Congratulations on receiving a 2015 Charming Women in Business Award. This honor is well-deserved, and stands as a tribute to your passion and success in the business world.

I am proud to honor an award which highlights the importance of women in business. The growing leadership of female businesswomen and entrepreneurs is critical for our economy and job creation, and I thank you for setting an example for women throughout the state.

I would like to thank you for your leadership at World Academy and commend you for your many achievements. Organizations throughout the state can find inspiration in your vision and commitment to excellence. Further, your accomplishments speak to both your success within your professional life and also your investment in your community. I hope your success encourages other businesswomen and entrepreneurs to pursue their passions, overcome difficult challenges, and use resources and outlets of support to plot a path toward their own goals.

Congratulations once again on this accomplishment, and best of luck as you continue your good work. I look forward to hearing about your future success.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Shaberen
